01 / OVERVIEW

Overview

A thorough examination of Luxor's historical landmarks is provided by the day trip to the East and West Banks. Visit well-known sites like the Luxor Temple, renowned for its magnificent architecture and historical significance, and the Karnak Temple Complex, one of the biggest temple complexes in the world, on the East Bank.

On the West Bank, you can explore the Valley of the Kings, where many pharaohs were buried, including Tutankhamun, and the Temple of Hatshepsut, a stunning mortuary temple dedicated to the only female pharaoh of ancient Egypt. Visit the world's largest open-air museum of Egyptian antiquities and take a fantastic Luxor day tour to the east and the west banks of the Nile River to see both sides of the river.

The East and West Bank Tours in Luxor will give you the chance to explore the large complex of Karnak temples which covers more than 60 acres, an area that is larger than some ancient cities.

Luxor Day Tours and Excursions

Luxor's west bank houses some attractions that are considered one of the most famous sites in the History of Egypt! You will get to visit the Luxor temple that was built Could you tell me the date of your trip?

Itinerary

DAY 01

Day Trip to see Luxor from Cairo by Plane

You will meet our Cairo Top Tours experienced tour leader at your hotel and he will take you to Cairo airport to start your thrilling Day Tour to Luxor from Cairo by Air. On arrival, our provisional guide will be anticipating you holding a signboard showing your name to start your day by visiting the West Bank of Luxor considered one of the most important archeological sites in all things to do in Egypt and in the whole world. the West Bank is a gateway to the Valley of the Kings, located in the center of the mountains and the tombs are carved into the rock under the hills. The walls of the tombs are adorned with hieroglyphics decoration and writings of ancient Egyptian mythology and beauty. The Valley of the Kings is considered a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Then, we will move to Hatshepsut Temple also known as the temple of El-Deir El-Bahari (which means in Arabic the monastery of the stone) which was built during the Eighteenth Dynasty and dedicated to Queen Hatshepsut and Amun-Re. The temple's unique design was made by the loyal architect Senmout. After that, you will stop to see the Colossi of Memnon, one of the most significant Luxor attractions facing the Nile River.

Resume your Egypt Day Tours to the East Bank of the Nile which is connected to the most famous attractions like the architectural complex of Karnak temples, which is considered the largest man-made religious complex the world has ever known. The largest temple of them belongs to Amun-Ra, Mut, and Khonso. The Egyptian rulers added their own architectural signs in the Temple to be remembered through the centuries.

Happy Vacation :)
